School Update

Administrative Report – Cathy Hinger & Sharilynn Shakeshaft

- Highlights around St. Luke
 - We held a Mass in the gym on October 20th. The Worship Team sang, and it was nice to be able to gather at the school and celebrate with the community. Thank you, Mrs. Shakeshaft, for preparing the choir to sing so beautifully. After the Mass, Father Jim went around the school and gave each classroom a blessing.
 - The Giving Tree was a success. All items are going to the Hope Mission. Thank you to all who donated items.
- Staff Update
 - We welcome Mrs. Melanie Mazurek to the Grade 4 class. She is starting her second week and will be with us as long as we need her here.

Upcoming Events

- October 28 – Halloween Family Dance
- November 1 & 2 – Three Way Conferences
- November 4 – Remembrance Day Celebration at 11am. All are welcome!
- November 7-11 – Fall Break

Teacher's Corner – Mrs. Sharilynn Shakeshaft

- Some Classroom and Extra Curricular Highlights:
 - SWAT led by Ms. Evans – Giving Tree, Terry Fox, Healthy Halloween Snacks.
 - The grade three class has been working on Rosaries and learning what each bead means.
 - The grade five class has been doing Orienteering in Alternative Programming for Outdoor Education. There have also been Indigenous Games with our Mental Health Capacity Builder.

- The St. Luke Worship Team premier was at the School Mass on October 20th. The girls are working very hard and are sounding great. They will have a small part in the upcoming Christmas Concert.
